

NAME _____

THE ADVENTURES OF TOM SAWYER

by Mark Twain

Chapter Sixteen - First Pipes - "I've Lost My Knife"

Chapter Seventeen - Pirates at Their Own Funeral

Chapter Eighteen - Tom Reveals His Dream Secret

1. _____ "I want to go too, Tom. It was getting lonesome anyway, and now it'll be worse."
2. _____ "I don't think I said anything."
3. _____ "Wait! Wait! I want to tell you something."
4. _____ "Go away and leave me alone, can't you! I hate you!!"
5. _____ "Now, auntie, that ain't any harm, it's only Tom's giddy way - he is always in such a rush that he never thinks of anything."

6. _____ "Oh, won't it be fun! You going to have all the girls and boys?"
7. _____ "Oh, boys, let's give it up. I want to go home. It's so lonesome."
8. _____ "Any boy in the whole town but that St. Louis smarty that thinks he dresses so fine and is aristocracy!"
9. _____ "Oh, if I only had a brass andiron knob again!"
10. _____ "Why, Mary Austin! You bad girl, why didn't you come to Sunday school?"
11. _____ "Oh, here's a jolly one! look at this!"
12. _____ "I've lost my knife. I reckon I better go and find it."
13. _____ "Don't tell me there ain't anything in dreams, any more. Sereny Harper shall know of this before I'm an hour older."
14. _____ "I'm glad to see him, poor motherless thing."
15. _____ "It was very kind, even though it was only a - dream."

16. _____ Tom: jealous
17. _____ Becky : jealous
18. _____ Joe, Tom: eager to show how mature they are
19. _____ Tom : compassionate
20. _____ Tom, Huck, Joe: theatrical; dramatic
21. _____ Alfred : spiteful
22. _____ Tom, Huck , Joe: fearful
23. _____ Becky : regretful
24. _____ Tom : superstitious
25. _____ Joe : homesick
- A. "Now they stretched themselves out on their elbows and began to puff charily, and with slender confidence."
- B. "The boys cried out to each other, but the roaring wind and the booming thunderblasts drowned their voices utterly."
- C. "...he found that in kicking off his trousers he had kicked his string of rattlesnake rattles off his ankle, and wondered how he had escaped cramp so long without the protection of this mysterious charm."
- D. "I want to go home. It's so lonesome."
- E. "...and then they went tearing down through the woods to attack an English settlement."
- F. "Becky's lips trembled and the tears came to her eyes; she hid these signs with a forced gaiety and went on chattering."
- G. "Aunt Polly, it ain't fair. Somebody's got to be glad to see Huck."
- H. "Any other boy! Tom thought, grating his teeth."
- I. "Oh, if it was to do over again, I wouldn't say that - I wouldn't say it for the whole world."
- J. "Here was his opportunity. He gratefully opened to the lesson for the afternoon and poured ink upon the page."

26. Nature exerts power over the boys when
(A) an earthquake devastates the Southeast
(B) too many sun-drenched days pass with no rain relief
(C) a storm strikes the island
27. Why did the "two Indians" not want to smoke a peace pipe?
(A) they wanted to keep fighting (B) smoking made them sick
(C) they thought it was silly (D) they wanted to go home
28. Now that Tom is a hero
(A) Becky seems more interested in him
(B) girls continue to ignore him
(C) Amy Lawrence avoids him
29. After he returns from being a pirate, Tom cruelly uses
(A) Becky to make Amy jealous
(B) Mary to make Becky jealous
(C) Amy to make Becky jealous
-
30. The culprit who spills ink over Tom's spelling book is
(A) Amy (B) Becky (C) Alfred
31. Instead of saying "their stories got bigger - and longer," the author could have said
(A) more things happened (B) the stories became exaggerated
(C) the boys became writers (D) the stories were very dull
32. Tom poked fun at Joe for feeling homesick because he didn't
(A) feel the same way (B) want Huck to feel left out
(C) like Joe (D) want to show that he was also homesick
33. Tom tells Aunt Polly that
(A) he visited her during the night
(B) he did not visit her during the night
(C) he dreamed he visited her during the night